Tempus Applied Solutions Holdings, Inc. (the “Registrant”) has been named as the preferred bidder for a contract for the provision, to a major NATO member country, of two intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance (“ISR”) aircraft. The Registrant expects to be awarded the contract if and when it is able to finalize remaining administrative and licensing terms. The contract is for the provision of not only modified special mission aircraft, but also training and maintenance support, and would be performed over a period of approximately five years. The Registrant estimates that, if it is awarded the contract, its revenues under the contract would exceed approximately $200 million, most of which would be received in approximately the first two years following the execution of the contract.
